Sir:

We are pleased to inform you that the National Library of the Philippines (NLP) in partnership with the National Commission for Culture and the Arts-National Committee on Library and Information Services (NCCA-NCLIS), Butuan City Public Library (BCPL), Philippine Librarians Association, Inc.- Caraga Region Librarians Council (PLAI-CRLC), and C & E Publishing, Inc. will be conducting a 3-Day Seminar-Workshop on Research and Development: Strategies, Roles and Challenges of Librarians with Continuing Professional Development (CPD) points on September 4-6, 2018 at Butuan City Public Library, J. Rosales Avenue, Butuan City.

Hence, all librarians, library staff, archivist, library-in-charge and record managers from different educational institutions and other agencies are invited to participate in the above mentioned activity. Further, the objectives of this 3-day workshop are the following:

1. Increase awareness of public librarians / library personnel and increase their skills in the latest research trends;
2. Fully utilize the information/library resources in order to provide all the assistance to their clients and create their own materials as a guidebook for research;
3. Train public librarians on the technical aspects of public librarianship on Indexing, Abstracting, Bibliography, Library Services, and other training for better, efficient and effective library services; and
4. Facilitate the General Assembly of PLAI-CRLC and CLLA Inc.

Anent to this, may we humbly request your good office to please endorse our activity so that the concern can attend the said invitation. A registration fee of Two Thousand Pesos (P 2,000.00) that covers 6 snacks (morning and afternoon), 3 meals (lunch), certificate, and a seminar kit.

Attached is our invitation program for your perusal. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Marlene M. Moreto
