CONTEST MECHANICS AND GUIDELINES

I. Nature of the Award Nature of the Award

The outstanding SSG/SPG is an annual recognition program that develops knowledge of leadership skills, styles and qualities. The award aims to ignite the burning passion of student-leaders in serving their school through the SSG and SPG. It kindles the spirit of the students, teachers, administrators and other stakeholders of the Department to be part of the National Building.

II. Objectives

The Awards overall objective is to recognize, reward and motivate students-leaders, teachers and administrators of all public schools all over the country with programs, projects and performances that help their schools and community.

Specifically, it aims to:

- Recognize the programs of the SSG and SPG that created an impact and addressed the issues and challenges in their school and community.
- Inspire and encourage student-leaders and teacher-advisers of all public schools all over the country to implement and develop programs that will help their schools and communities.
- Acknowledge and honor the idea of solidarity by recognizing the group instead of one individual.

III. Who can join?

The awards is open to all SPG and SSG for S.Y. 2017-2020 in all public school.

The project entry may be:

1. implemented for the last three years;
2. recently concluded projects or an on-going project; and
3. the project shall be under in any five categories of this Awards.
